for being everywhere!
We thank You for your long patience while waiting at the door of our hearts with blessings to share with us.
Our hope is in You alone
nourish and fortify our hope.
Grant us strength and courage, day by day,
to be willing servants of Christ, our Redeemer.
O Christ in Your love, guide us from darkness to light, so to appreciate Your love.
May we banish anxiety, by trusting and reflecting on Your faithfulness.
Teach us patience in our relationships with our fellow human beings.
May the pure wind of the Holy Spirit blow away the haze of ignorance, and the mist of prejudice, that we may see clearly what You would have us see.
Lift our eyes from our worldly interests,
to see the things that are true,
for all our needs, in Christ's name.*
