IN MEMORIAM

DEREPENTIGNY - In loving memory of our precious parents and brother who passed away - Dad on March 18, 1986 - Mom on March 19, 1997 and Bruno on January 5, 1993. How soon the "later years" come. This from an unknown author seems to me very wise.

A PRAYER FOR LATER YEARS

Lord, Thou knowest that I am growing older.
Keep me from becoming too talkative, and particularly keep me from falling into the tiresome habit of expressing an opinion on every subject.
Release me from the craving to straighten out everybody's affairs.
Give me grace, Dear Lord, to listen to others describe their aches and pains. Help me endure the boredom with patience, and keep my lips sealed, for my own aches and pains are increasing in number and intensity, and the pleasure of discussing them is becoming sweeter as the years go by.
Teach me the glorious lesson that, occasionally, I might be mistaken.
Keep me reasonably sweet. I do not wish to be a saint (saints are so hard to live with), but a sour old person is the work of the devil.
Make me thoughtful, but not moody; helpful, but not pushy; independent, yet able to accept with graciousness favours that others wish to bestow on me.
Free me of the notion that simply because I have lived a long time, I am wiser than those who have not lived so long.
If I do not approve of some of the changes that have taken place in recent years, give me the wisdom to keep my mouth shut. Lord knows that when the end comes, I would like to have a friend or two left.

Loving memories, always in our prayers,
Lisette, Theo, Erich & Matthew

IN MEMORIAM

STEWART - In loving memory of dear parents, Cameron and Dorothy who passed away in the spring of 1995.

Treasured memories keep them near,

As time unfolds another year,

No longer in our lives to share,

But in our hearts they are always there.

Lovingly remembered by Barrie and Elaine, Donald and Hope, Cyril and Judy and grandchildren

HAMILTON, Irene (Carmichael) - In loving memory of a dear wife who passed away March 23, 1998.

Just as you were,

You'll always be,

Treasured in my memory.

Always remembered by Bruce
