IN MEMORIAM

GILLIES, James T. (Mar. 13, 1928-Dec. 4, 1996)

*The day that you left us
Was a sad sorry day.
It's been four long years
The sadness won't go away.
We speak of you often,
We laugh and we cry
We don't understand
We'll never know why
You had to be taken
To leave such a void.
Remember we love you
And we always will.
We'll never forget you
Although you are still,
To us you were happiness,
We'll always remember,
That sad darkened day
You went away in December.*

Too dearly loved to ever be forgotten

Love

Ormstown woman dies following crash

An Ormstown woman aged in her 60s died following a single-vehicle accident in St-Stanislas-de-Kostka early on the snowy morning of Wednesday Nov. 22.

Mrs. Mickey Tassé of Ormstown's Upper Concession was a passenger in a pick-up truck driven by her husband. On Rte. 201 near the intersection of Rang 5, he lost control of the vehicle which skidded onto the snow-covered shoulder of the road before ending up in the ditch, police said.

Mrs. Tassé was unconscious when police arrived on the scene shortly after the 5:30 a.m. crash. She was taken by ambulance to hospital where she suffered a fatal heart attack shortly afterward. Her husband received minor injuries in the accident.
