Obituary

Catherine Telford, 77, mourned in Valleyfield

The Valleyfield community was greatly saddened by the sudden death of Catherine Telford (née Finlayson) on Friday, July 13. She was 77.

Cathy was born in River Bend, Que., in the Lac-St-Jean area, on March 25, 1924, the daughter of the late David Finlayson and Agnes Towers.

During World War II, Cathy and her sister Agnes joined the Armed Forces and served in the CWAS for almost four years.

On April 17, 1954, she married the late James Telford, who came originally from Thunder Bay, Ont. He predeceased her in January 2001.

Over the years, the couple raised six children: David, Jimmy, Frances, Sharon, Patricia and Shawn.

The family moved to Valleyfield in 1966, where Cathy was a devoted and active member of St. Mark's Anglican Church, and a member of Valleyfield Branch 62 of the Royal Canadian Legion. In recent years she enjoyed membership in the Aerobics and Exercise class held in Ormstown.

She had a friendly and outgoing personality and made many long-lasting friends over the years. She will be sadly missed by so many.

The funeral service was held on the afternoon of Thursday July 19 at St. Mark's Church, Valleyfield, with Rev. Odette Perron officiating. The church was packed with friends and neighbors as well as family members.

Following the service, Cathy was laid to rest in the Legion Field of Honor in the Valleyfield Catholic Cemetery.

Deepest sympathy goes out from the community to her family: David, Jimmy and Shawn, all of Vancouver, BC; Frances of Toronto; and Sharon and Patricia of the Valleyfield area; her 12 dearly-loved grandchildren; and her sister Agnes of British Columbia.
