IN MEMORIAM

McCRACKEN, Harold - In loving memory of a dear husband who passed away November 5, 1983.

*A silent thought, a secret tear
Keeps his memory ever dear
Time takes away the edge of grief
But memory turns back every leaf.
Always remembered and sadly missed by Dorothy*

WINTER, Ross and Verna - In loving memory of our beloved parents and grand-parents, Dad who passed away November 20, 1996 and Mom, November 3, 2000.

Remembering In Autumn

*The leaves on the trees have turned once again,
And now we are reminded of you.
Remembering when you left us,
And how much we still miss everything you used to do.*

*Watching the forest turn bright with color,
And the trees quickly becoming bare,
We remember our last moments with you,
And tell the old stories we love to share.
Now that the garden roses have withered away,
And each new day is getting colder,
We think of all the things that you have missed,
Now that we have all grown one year older.
We see the old buildings quietly standing,
With the bright red maple on the lawn
And hope that somewhere you are watching us,
Because you are forever in our hearts, now that you are gone.*

(Composed by Jeannie Bryson, Granddaughter)

You are with us always, daughters, sons and grandchildren
