Two men killed in motorcycle crash

Two men died early Saturday evening in a motorcycle accident on Route 203 near Howick.

Co-workers Raymond Gagnon, 51, and Eric Prévost, 20, both of Howick, were riding the same vehicle northbound on Route 203 around 6:35 p.m. when the motorcycle went out of control, crashing through a guard rail and ending up in the ditch. Both men were thrown from the bike and seriously injured. Taken by ambulance to Ormstown's Barrie Memorial Hospital, they were declared dead on arrival.

Agent Ronald McInnis of the Montérégie SQ office said police are continuing their investigations into the cause of the accident.
