CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late George W. Tollhurst wish to express their sincere and heartfelt thanks for all the acts of kindness shown to us recently at a very difficult time. To neighbours, relatives and friends who so generously sent food, flowers, cards and paid visits, all were much appreciated. To the staff of the E.R. at "The Barrie" for their kindness and care, to the staff on the third floor for their professionalism and caring ways a great big "thank-you". To Kate Jordan for her caring and support, and to the ladies of St. Andrew's for the delicious lunch provided by them, thank-you again. A special and sincere word of appreciation and thanks to Dr. Brissette and Dr. Aikin for all your kindly care and attention to George.

Sincerely,
Ruth Tollhurst & family

Following the death of Mercédès D'Aoust on June 23, at the age of 82, her sisters Alberte and Huguette, as well as her brother Jean-Claudius would like to thank everyone who expressed their sympathy. Your support was very much appreciated. Also, sincere thanks to Dr. Raymond Lemieux, as well as to all those who gave Mercédès excellent care either at home or at the Huntingdon Hospital. Please consider these thanks as personal.
