CARD OF THANKS

To all our friends, Sina lived life with courage and dedication and tackled every obstacle with fierce belief that she could make it better. Everyone who knew her has memories to remember her by. We have found that there are many of you who cared about her and want to take this opportunity to extend our appreciation for your friendship and support. We want to thank the Jewish General Hospital staff, The Huntingdon CLSC for your home care support and Dr. Jeannie Rosenberg, we never felt alone. We send a special thank you to family, friends, neighbours and members of the many community groups to which Sina belonged for your loyal support throughout this difficult time, not only in the past few weeks but also in the last 16 months. Your kind words, prayers, help, food, flowers, home and funeral visits have helped us tremendously and given us more strength than you know. Until the end she did it her way, never complaining, and for this we admire her strength. She was left a great impression on many people and will live on in all of us. Please accept this as our personal thank you, we are lucky to have had you near. Joseph Nieuwenhof and family

René & Danielle Lecavalier

We wish to express our thanks to all our family, friends and neighbors for the much appreciated support and many acts of kindness shown us during the time of Kelly's death. A special thank you to Jacques Montpetit, Revs. Susan Estabrooks and Kate Jordan, Murray McCaig, Connie and her choir, and the ladies at Huntingdon United Church.

John, Shirley, Tamara & Laurie Watson

IN MEMORIAM

HART, Alcide - In memory of a dear Husband, Father and Grandad who passed away October 24, 2002.

You left many happy memories,

And a sorrow too great to be told,

But to us who loved and lost you.

Your memory will never grow old.

With love, wife Mamie & family

KNOX, Hartley Jr. - Who passed away a year ago on October 23, 2002.

We love and miss you so much.

We have a picture which shows a path lined with fallen leaves,

It says words we sometimes cannot say,

For we're so far lost in our thoughts of you,

Tearfully remembering that day you slipped peacefully away.

At first we felt lonesome but not alone,

As the leaves crunched beneath our feet,

Just a few days earlier they were in splendour of colours,

Now they lay still with a lingering fragrance of bittersweet.

And when we are enfolded in the waiting arms,

Of our loved ones whom we so missed,

The tears will give way to the love,

With many of hugs and then blessed with a kiss.

One day we all will walk, This same path but not alone,

For when we reach the other side,

We'll know then we all have come home.

Forever and always remembered with love,
all the families and friends XOXO

SPROULE, Olive Mae McCartney - (October 30, 1920-October 22, 1997) In loving memory of a dear Mother, Mother-in-law and Grandmother.

This day is remembered and quietly kept,

No words are needed, we'll never forget,

A mother you were one of a kind,

What beautiful memories you left behind.

Forever in our hearts,

Your loving family
