CARD OF THANKS

I am a "Valley" girl who was recently transplanted to the city (by marriage) and I've been the grateful recipient of the kindness and compassion one receives during a crisis. I would like to thank everyone for their cards, flowers, phone calls, visits and prayers for my Mom, Joyce Bremner. There are just too many of you to thank individually, therefore, please accept this as a personal "Thank-you". Thank-you to Robert and Shirley Ness and Bill and Joan Templeton who "kept everything going". Also a big thank-you to the nurses and Dr. Kevin Brissette of the "Barrie" and Gabriel Bourdon of Urgence Santé. I am forever grateful.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to thank all our friends and neighbors who came to help celebrate our new home!
Jim and Judy Gavin

BEERWORTH, Ernie

*Thanks to all family and friends, who had a hand in which to lend,
Thanks to all hospital staff,
who worked long hours and many days passed.
Thanks to all who made our meal,
and gave us full tummies in which to feel.
Ernie you've touched us in many ways,
we miss you each and every day.
You never gave up with out a fight,
we love you with every inch of our might.
Like a bird in a bucket,
or fish in the sea.
You're one of a kind,
and kind you would be.
A father of one, grandfather of three,
brother of six, a life partner to me.
An all around friend,
the best you could be.
You're in our hearts and our memory,
forever and ever and eternity.*

God bless you! Thanks again to everyone who was there to support me and give me a shoulder to lean on when I needed it most. Lots of love always,

Leona

IN MEMORIAM
