FEENY, John - In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather -

Lovingly remembered Jo-Ann, John, Jenna, Nickolas & Andrea.

It was five years ago today since I lost you.

Life has never been the same without you.

I remember the stories, but I don't hear your voice.

And the laughter that followed is now so silent.

I could always come to you, for help and advice.

The special moments we shared, were always so nice.

If I would have had just one wish, it would have been to tell you to your face,

How much I love and miss you, and that you will always be in my heart in a very special place.

Your loving daughter, Jo-Ann

Everyday I think of you,

And I'm getting very sad,

This bothers me a lot because,

I know you are not coming back.

Pictures of you are on my walls and thoughts are in my head,

Memories are all around me when I'm lying on my bed.

Five years have come and gone and everyday I know I miss you.

If I could have one wish then it would be to tell you that I love you.

Love your youngest granddaughter,

Andrea Soesbergen

PATENAUE, Ronald - In memory of a dear husband, step-father and Grampa who died December 27, 2003.

Memories of you come our way,

Though absent you are forever near.

Sadly missed, Linda, Barbara, Nick, Yiannis & friends

PORTER, Gordon - In loving memory of a dear husband, father and grandfather who passed away on December 30, 1990.

Loved and remembered every day.

Ormstown and area remembers popular teacher

Brent Harrison

Willa Hooker, a loving mother, grandmother, popular teacher, and respected Ormstown resident, died December 10 at the age of 92. While her death is sad, her memory brings smiles to her family, her many friends, and former students.

Mrs. Hooker will be recalled as being active and generous by the many social groups and charities she was involved. By her students, she will be remembered as enthusiastic and patient. To her fellow instructors, she was inspiring and supportive.

Willa knew life's anguish, having lost her husband and two sons, but she carried on. Her energy and enthusiasm prevailed. Over the years, she was a popular addition to gatherings and events, always doing her part. Her willingness to share a bit of history, join in a song or dance, and make the best of any situation was appreciated. Her ability to teach her class, care for her family, help a friend, and still bake a cake for an evening meeting was admired. Willa's pleasant smile and cheery personality invited more than just "Hello" when passing, and often resulted in a little chat.

Summers spent at Savage Harbour, P.E.I. were always looked forward to and winters were filled with local curling activities. It is said that Mrs. Hooker never forgot the name of a former student, and that students actually looked forward to grade six, and Willa's class.

The old proverb reads: Give a man a fish and you feed him for a day. Teach a man to fish and you feed him for a lifetime. Mrs. Hooker fulfilled that proverb.

Survived by her two daughters and many grandchildren Willa Hooker's dynamic contribution to the Ormstown community will be remembered.
