IN MEMORIAM

TREMBLAY, Deanna - In loving memory of a dear sister, mother and aunt who we all love and miss. August 29, 2004.

*It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
Missing and loving you always,*

Your sister Tracey, Alyssa & Riley,
Your children Olivia, Zachery & Kolby

TREMBLAY, Deanna - In loving memory of our dear daughter who was taken from us 1 year ago August 29, 2004.

*Deanna, the moment that you died,
Our hearts split in two,
One side filled with memories,
The other died with you.
They say there is a reason,
They say that time will heal,
But neight time nor reason,
Will change the way we feel,
For no one knows the heartache,
That lies behind our smiles,
No one knows how many times,
We have broken down and cried.
Deanna, our daughter still our little girl,
You're so wonderful to think of,
But so hard to live without.*

Until we meet again,
Luv Mom and Dad

Rupert Wiggins: A man of many talents

Louise Wiggins

Rupert Wiggins, a resident of Moonlight Lake, near Athelstan, was a man of many talents. He had an inventive mind and was a true "Mr. Fix-it". We never waited for a job to get done.

Rupert loved to work in his shop making birdhouses, armoires, etc. He was always generous.

Rupert's dogs, Fluffy and Penny, loved him and when bedtime came, off they went with him. He lovingly spoiled them.

Rupert learned to read late in life and his favourite reading was The Good News Bible.

Rupert was also a devoted husband to his dear wife Louise.

Man makes his plans, God sometimes changes them. God giveth and taketh away. Praise the name of the Lord.

We loved you Rupert. You are forever in our hearts: Louise, his wife, Anne Lelovie, his stepdaughter, and step-grandchildren Joanne, Robert, Christina, Daniel, and great step-grandchild Nathaniel.
