Obituary

James H. Waldie

Peacefully on April 9th, 2006, Mr. James Harold Waldie, age 65, passed away at the Nanaimo Hospital (Palliative Care Unit) Nanaimo, B.C. He was predeceased by his wife Maureen (Stevenson) in 2000. He leaves to mourn his two daughters, Laura of Nanaimo and Heather (husband Dave Oud) of Parksville, B.C.; one sister Muriel (husband Stanley Reid) of Huntingdon, Qc; one sister in law, Carol (husband Dale Malmgren) of Victoria, B.C.; two brother-in-laws, Garry and Gavin Stevenson of Surrey, B.C.; several nephews, a niece and many friends.

Jimmy, the son of the late Harold Wendell Waldie and his wife, the late Grace Elizabeth Anderson, grew up on the Waldie homestead, located on the Athelstan Ridge Road, Athelstan, Qc. He moved with his wife Maureen to Nanaimo in 1969, where their home was established and their two daughters were born. Jim had many friends due mainly to his warm, gentle and caring nature. He had a strong work ethic, he loved his home and enjoyed nature, especially the early morning sunrise. He had begun to take pleasure in retirement, having at last, time to enjoy such hobbies as woodworking, home renovation projects, gardening, and travel. During his final weeks, he fought his illness with courage and dignity. For as found in 2nd Chronicles chapter 20, verse 15, Jimmy believed "The battle is not yours, but God's." And, as all who come to hear Christ's words and understand the power of the Spirit, Jimmy recognized that the Holy Spirit gives a whole new way to look at life. He knew that real life begins after death, his new-found inner joy was only a prelude of what is to come.

A memorial service was held at Sands Funeral Home, in Nanaimo on Saturday, April 15, with the Rev. Fried officiating. In lieu of flowers, if so desired, donations in his memory may be made to the Canadian Cancer Foundation or to the Palliative Care Unit of the Nanaimo Hospital, Nanaimo, B.C.
