IN MEMORIAM

TREMBLAY, Deanna - In loving memory of a wonderful daughter, mother and friend who was taken from us two years ago August 29, 2004.

Who You'd Be Today

*Sunny days always hurt the most,
We wear our pain like a heavy coat.
We feel you everywhere we go,
See your smile, see you glow!
We hear you laughing in the rain,
It hurts so much... our Deanna's gone away!
Life's not fair, you died so young,
Like a story that had just begun.
But death tore the pages all away,
Breaking our hearts everyday!
Just knowing, no one can take your place,
Wondering always where you'd be today.
Would you get to see the world?
Would you chase your dreams?
Until the day we all unite,
You'll never be far from sight,
The only thing that helps the pain,
We know we'll meet again!*

Love always & forever

Mom & Dad

Your children: Olivia, Zack and Kolby

TREMBLAY, Deanna - In loving memory of Deanna Tremblay, sister, aunt and cherished friend, August 29, 2004.

*We miss your laughter, your voice, your smile,
and most of all we miss you.
We often think about you and often we cry.
We know you left us too early, we wish you were here, if just for a while.
We tried to find the words to say how much we missed you, there were too many.
One thing is for certain you were too young to die.*

Love you forever,

You are our beautiful Angel
Tracey, Adam, Alyssa and Riley
