CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Rev. John S. Anderson would like to thank Rev. Birgit Neuschild for the service and the ladies of Howick United Church for the lovely reception which followed. We would also like to express our appreciation to those who called, visited, brought flowers, sent cards and to those who made charitable donations in memory of our father. Special thanks to Linda, the staff and residents of Maison La Source Bleue as well as Dr. Vandor and the staff at Barrie Memorial Hospital for their kindness and assistance to our father. We greatly appreciated the special efforts of Mrs. Jean Templeton and the other ladies of the church who assisted our father in hospital and who helped our family throughout the entire period.
