Fond memories of a dear friend

I know you will join with me in expressing our deepest sympathy to the family of (Anikki Neiman) Nikki Capron, who often stressed the fact she did not want any visitation or memorial service when she passed away. Regrets of losing a dear friend, however, cannot go unsaid. Her concerns were always for others and only for others.

It was a relaxed and fun time to be with Nikki. She and I played bridge from the time she retired to Ormstown until I left the area. I was honoured to be her partner and I must say because of Nikki we came first in our bridge marathons more than a couple of times. If we were not playing bridge she would bring out the Balderdash game. Many times when friends from out of town came to visit me we would be entertained by Nikki, at her home, with this fun game.

Nikki taught school in Seven Islands for many years. When she retired she and her husband Nick came to Ormstown where Jim and Margaret Dawson were instrumental in helping them find a home and get settled in the area.

On one occasion when Nikki came up to Kemptville to play bridge (Ormstown versus Kemptville) she fell at our home and broke her hip. She was such a trooper through the whole ordeal; the operation in Ottawa, and the recuperation at her home. Nikki sent a note of thanks to the doctor in Kemptville who was so attentive to her when she arrived by ambulance at the Kemptville Hospital. A lady in our area read the note and wrote to Nikki asking if it was possible that she would be the same person she went to school with in Val D'Or. Margaret Carlson and Nikki connected again and Margaret has had school reunions at her home every summer since then.

Finally, we can all remember the happiness that Nikki's little grandson brought her; her happy moments in England with Maurleen, Michael and Lucas and the happiness her son Douglas brought her and how much she enjoyed having him so close to her in the Montreal area.

Sleep well friend, it was hard on us losing you, but we are so happy that you are at peace.

Out-of-town friends,
Ellen Vibert-Miller, Margaret
Dawson and Margaret Carlson

Mom

God looked around his garden
And saw an empty space.
Then he looked
Down here on earth
And saw your loving face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest,
His garden must be beautiful
Because he only picks the best.
A million times
We'll miss you
A million times we'll cry,
If love could have saved you
You never would have died.
It broke our hearts
To lose you
But you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God took you home.
Always loved and never Forgotten
Your family
