IN MEMORIAM

BLAIR, Glenna (1925-2006) - In loving memory of a cherished wife and devoted mother who passed away one year ago April 8, 2006. Her laughter, love of family and courage were an inspiration to all those who knew and loved her. Not a day goes by when we don't think of you. Missing you and loving you, forever.

Norval,
Judy & Garth,
John & Audrey,
Jim & Dianne,
Sue & Adrian,
Joan & Rick,
Jeff & Cynthia,
and all her many grandchildren
and great-grandchildren.

BLAIR, Glenna (née Dickenson) - In loving memory of a dear sister, sister-in-law, aunt, who passed away April 8, 2006.

*One year has come and gone,
And in our hearts you still live on.
We miss the love, the joy, the cheer,
That were a part of you being here.*

Sadly missed always remembered by

George (Bernice), Audrey,
Mary (Gordon), (Ruth),
Mina (Merrill) & families

GERVAIS, Peggy - In memory of a dear mother, grandmother and great grandmother who passed away 10 years ago March 27.

*So many things have happened,
Since you were called away.
So many things to share with you,
Had you been left to stay,
Every day in some small way,
Memories of you come our way,
Though absent you are ever near,
Still missed, loved and always dear.*

Sadly missed and forever in our hearts,
Betty, Russell & family

SPROULE, Robert Austin - March 17, 1912-April 6, 1960. In loving memory of a dear father, father-in-law and grandfather.

*Never more than a thought away,
Quietly remembered every day,
No need for words except to say,
Still loved, still missed in every way.*

AMY NEVA (DONNELLY) REID

Of Falmouth, Nova Scotia, Amy passed away February 15, 2007, at the age of 78, in the Queen Elizabeth II Health Sciences Centre, Halifax, with her family by her side. Born in Huntingdon, she was the daughter of the late Walter S. and Mabel A. (Clark) Donnelly.

Amy was a past employee of Bell Telephone in Montreal, and of Canada Post, serving as Assistant Postmaster in Hemmingford, Que., and in Falmouth and Windsor, N.S. She was a member of the Quebec Women's Institute in Hemmingford from 1956 until moving to Nova Scotia in 1980, holding many offices in the WI and serving as President from 1973 to 1975. Amy was awarded a life membership in 1977. In that citation she was recognized for promoting public awareness of the Women's Institute (including arranging and appearing in a series of six broadcasts on Montreal radio station CJAD).

Amy was an avid reader (averaging a book a week over the past 35 years). She enjoyed working with her hands, taking a great interest in weaving and sewing, and most recently was an active member of a quilting group in Windsor, N.S. A wonderful cook, she enjoyed nothing more than hosting large family gatherings with all the trimmings. She also kept busy by volunteering her time as a teacher's assistant at Falmouth Elementary, tutoring children's reading skills, and also volunteered with the Public Health Service's School Immunization Programme.

Amy is survived by her husband, Peter Reid; children, Linda Lawton, Bridgetown, N.S.; William Winter, Hemmingford, Que.; John Reid, Dartmouth, N.S.; Karla Lynch, Rawdon, N.S., and their spouses; grandchildren, Jason, Sarah, Amy, Adrienne, Matthew, Andrew, Brittany; great-grandchildren, Mathew, Brianna, Victoria; and brother John, Innisfail, Alberta. She was predeceased by her son, James Winter; sister, Mae Forget; and brother, Leslie Donnelly.

At Amy's request, her body has been donated to medical science. A memorial service and reception were held at Lohnes Funeral Service Ltd., Windsor, N.S., on Saturday, March 24, 2007.

Donations in Amy's memory may be made to Dalhousie Medical Research Foundation (www.dmr.ca) / toll-free 1-888-866-6559, or to a charity of your choice. Private messages of condolence may be made in the "Guest Book" at: www.familycare.ca
