IN MEMORIAM

DUNCAN (TILDEN), Doris - who passed away April of 2007 at the Huntingdon County Hospital. A private funeral was arranged in the U.S.A.

*Doris, from standing outside your window,
I felt uncertain,
Then peering out I'd seen my Dad,
His hands motioning me in from behind the curtain.
I rang your door bell, then I heard,
"Come in, it's not locked",
I introduced myself to you,
Then you served cookies and tea and we began to talk.
Minutes grew into hours,
Then hours turned into years,
You had become family,
In celebrating many happy times and shedding many tears.
Doris and Dad became inseparable,
They were both in the hospital at the same time,
When they were well enough to leave,
Dad's room was ready when Doris asked,
"could I have a room of mine?"
And so together, their lives they shared,
Attending every holiday, birthday or just having fun,
Enjoying "Little House on the Prairie" or listening to Daniel O'Donnell,
Two of them together, became as one.*

Lovingly remembered by the Knox family and friends XOXO

IN MEMORIAM

FORGET - In loving memory of Joseph Jr who passed away 30 years ago May 20, 1977. Our family chain is broken, And nothing seems the same, But as God calls us one by one, The chain will link again.

Sadly missed by sons Carl & Brian, daughter Shirley & Dorothy, sons-in-law Johnny & Ernie, grandsons Jimmy, Paul, Dwayne, Marc Sean, Troy, Esca, granddaughters Sherilyn Simoy

KNOX, Hartley Sr. - who passed away peacefully with his family at his bedside, two years ago on May 13, 2005. Dad today our thoughts were of both parents, Being Mother's Day was also on the 2nd anniversary, you'd passed, These two years have come and gone, Thinking and speaking of you, is now in the past So many stories and laughs we share, As each one recalls from their memories, Just when you thought you couldn't laugh anymore, Someone said something, we cried so hard we couldn't see. Dad loved driving trucks and hauling cans of milk, We've heard how he lifted one in each hand, Age had took its toll on him, As once he was a six foot 225 pounds, of a man Step dancing and singing, Young and old we all got along, Mom with her harmonica and playing guitar, To the old Country 'N Western songs. So when you ever see us, Raising hell and having fun, Remember, because of "Our Mom and Dad", That was how it had all begun.

Love hugs and kisses from Sons - Bob, Cliff, Gerald and Jimmy daughters - Bev, Connie and MaryAnn predeceased by wife Marjorie Lewis and son Hartley Jr
