Already a year...

The death of my wife was for me like the end of the world. I lost my beloved wife, my best friend. She was a lively person, always smiling and ready to help anyone who needed it. An extraordinary mother who gave me two wonderful daughters and hundreds of beautiful memories to cherish from the past fourteen years. Life goes on, the girls and I are doing fine, the pain and her absence are still present but we understand that it was her illness that took her away, we will never forget our wonderful mother. I would like to take this opportunity to thank our family and friends for their support at the time of her death and throughout the following year. A million thanks...
