CARD OF THANKS

On behalf of Ben, myself, and my whole family, I want to thank everyone who helped us the day of the accident - the volunteer firemen, SQ officers, ambulance attendants, hospital personnel from CHRS, CHAL and the MGH as well as friends and family. Also a special thank you to the cyclist who was able to carry Ben to safety. We want to thank everyone for their gifts and well wishes - it's very special to belong to a small community. Hopefully there will be a way for us to repay all this kindness some day.
Greg, Jamie, Ben & Harrison Rennie

The family of the late George Norman express their appreciation for all the forms of kindness. Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend would say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much whatever the part.
Jean Norman

TREMBLAY, Deanna - In loving memory of our daughter who left this world on August 29, 2004.
*This month comes with sad regret,
It brings back a day we will never forget.
Deanna, the moment you died,
Our hearts split in two.
One side filled with memories,
The other died with you.
In our souls, there is a hole,
That can never be filled.
But in our hearts, there is hope,
Cause you are with us still.
In our hearts, you live on.
Always there, never gone.
Precious child, you left too soon.
Though it may be true that we're apart,
You will live forever in our hearts.
In our plans, we were to leave,
But in this world we have been left to grieve.
For no one knows the heartache,
That lies behind our smiles.
No one knows how many times,
We have broken down and cried.
Deanna, our daughter, our little girl, you're so wonderful to think of but so hard to live without.*

Love always, until we meet again,
Mom & Dad

Tribute

A young man remembered

"Tommy, can I pitch?"
In a high, sweet, squeaky voice that always built up to the drawn-out last word, ten-year old Julien Rougeau asked the question of his baseball coach so often that it became a team catchphrase. Soon, everyone was mimicking it: "Tommy, can I peeetch?"
Julien Rougeau, 17, died August 21. It is always shocking when a young man dies. It is absolutely wrenching when it's a young man one knows. I remember him best as a cheerful, smiling ten-year old baseball player who was a joy to coach. His sandy hair, skewed cap and wide grin gave him a charming Huckleberry Finn look. He took advice well. He played happy. He made everyone around him a little livelier.
"Tommy, can I pitch?"
He left baseball too soon, not quite ready at that tender age to be a dominating pitcher like his dad is. Julien went on to do whatever it is that baseball-less adolescents and teenagers do. I do not know what other dreams Julien pursued in the years since, but I never completely lost sight of him.

Every time I saw him on the streets, I'd wave at the charming kid who had always wanted to pitch. And Julien would always grin and wave back, even though it's not cool for a young homey to acknowledge older folk.

Even as his sullen mates would look down at their oversized sneakers and tug at their trendy hoods, Julien would look up and smile widely in that roguish way of his.

His old baseball group can do little more than sadly wonder at a world where radiant kids are taken away at achingly young ages. His old baseball group can do little more than retire his jersey number. His old baseball group can do little more than remember him fondly.

"Tommy, can I peeetch?"
Yes, Julien; you can pitch.
We wish.

Robert Jadah, Hemmingford

In Loving Memory

Rod Beattie

In loving memory of a dear husband, father and grand-father who passed away 20 years ago today, on August 27, 1988.

May the good lord be with you, Down every road you roam, And may sunshine and happiness, Surround you when you're far from home, And may you grow to be proud, Dignified and true, And do unto others, As you'd have done to you, Be courageous and be brave, And in my heart you'll always stay, Forever young, forever young.

Lovingly remembered by his wife Agnes, daughters Fiona,
Lorraine, Gillian, and families.
