

Ormstown resident turns 99

Janet Wylie celebrated her 99th birthday September 19 at her residence in the Centre d'Accueil in Ormstown. Ms. Wylie was born in Scotland and came to Canada when she was 21 with a friend. She married and settled in Hemmingford and later lived in Franklin. Her descendants include two daughters, Brenda Steele of Rockburn and Kay Cleland of Hemmingford, as well as seven grandchildren and eight great grandchildren. According to Ms. Wylie's daughter, Brenda, her mother still enjoys good health and the presence of friends and family, who joined her to celebrate her birthday.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Leslie Thornton wishes to express their sincere thanks to Dr. Lemieux and Dr. Hebert. The nursing staff for their excellent kind care at the Huntingdon County Hospital. For relatives, friends and neighbours for their kind support. The beautiful flowers, donations, phone calls, sympathy cards and visits. A special thanks to Kenny Harrigan for his weekly visits. All is very much appreciated.

Rita and family,
The Thornton family

Thank you to our families, friends and neighbours for joining us to celebrate our birthdays. Also thanks to the band, the extra musicians and singers, the table dancers, corn roasters and for all the cards and gifts. It was a party we'll reminisce about for a long time.
